The Rulers of the Lakes

Although complete in its own right, 'The Rulers of the Lakes' is the third volume of the author's French and Indian War series. It continues the tales and adventures of Robert Lennox, Tayoga and Willet following the earlier stories, 'The Hunters of the Hills' and 'The Shadow of the North'.

In this concluding episode, finishing with the Battle of Lake George and the colonists' first great victory of the war, Lennox and his friend Tayoga risk all to alert the settlers and garrison at Fort Refuge of the impending attack by hostile French forces.
